PART II

NURSES AND MIDWIVES COUNCIL

Establishment of the Council.

3. There is established a body corporate to be known as the Nurses and Midwives Council.

Functions of the Council.

4. The functions of the Council are to-

- (a) enroll, register, certify and license nursing personnel;
- (b) establish standards of education, training, conduct and performance for nursing personnel and to ensure the maintenance of those standards;
- (c) promote the interests of nursing personnel;
- (d) advise the Minister on matters related to nursing personnel; and
- (e) perform any other functions as may be conferred on it by this Act or any other law.

Powers of the Council.

5. In exercise of its functions under section 4, the Council shall have the power to-

- (a) determine the qualifications and any other requirements necessary for registration, enrolment, certification or licensing of nursing personnel;
- (b) register, enroll, certify or license nursing personnel;
- (c) issue any certificate or licence to nursing personnel;
- (d) open, keep and maintain the Registers required under this Act;
- (e) revoke, cancel, suspend or place conditions on any certificate or licence issued by the Council;
- (f) determine the scope of practice of nursing personnel;
- (g) develop and disseminate a framework for and regulate continuing education for relicensure;
- (h) monitor the compliance of nursing educational institutions to educational standards set by the Council;
- (i) develop a code of ethics and conduct for nursing personnel;
- (j) monitor the adherence to, and investigate breaches of standards and the code of ethics and conduct;

- (k) exercise disciplinary control, whether by way of imposition of fines or otherwise, over persons registered or enrolled as nursing personnel;
- (l) appoint and train nursing personnel as inspectors for the Council for nursing education and practice;
- (m) appoint a Registrar and any other member of staff as necessary; and
- (n) collect fees required to be paid under this Act.

Composition of the Council.

6. The Council shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the Minister as follows—

- (a) the Chief Nursing Officer who shall be an ex officio member;
- (b) a representative from Health Sciences Education at the Ministry responsible for health;
- (c) the Director of Nursing Services of the Georgetown Public Hospital Corporation;

- (k) a technical officer from the Ministry responsible for health;

- (l) a legal representative; and
- (m) a representative from civil society.

Election of Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson.

7. The Council shall elect from among its members a Chairperson, a Vice-Chairperson and any other officers as it considers fit.

Committees of the Council.

8. (1) The Council may appoint committees of its members as it considers necessary for the execution of its functions, and may delegate any of its functions to any committee.

(2) Members may be appointed to serve on the following committees-

- (a) Education Standards Committee;
- (b) Disciplinary Committee;
- (c) Registration Committee; and
- (d) Finance Committee.

Tenure of office.

9. (1) The members who are not ex-officio shall hold office for a period of three years and shall not be eligible for re-appointment or re-election.

(2) The office of a member shall become vacant where -

- (a) the member dies;
- (b) the member's term of office expires;
- (c) the member resigns by written notice to the Council; or
- (d) the member is removed by the Council where the member-
  - (i) is unable to function because of physical or mental illness;

- (ii) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council without reasonable excuse;
- (iii) is convicted of an offence which the Council reasonably believes makes the member unfit to serve as a member;
- (iv) is suspended or dismissed from the member's profession for malpractice or any other offence in Guyana or any other country by an order of a competent authority; or
- (v) acts contrary to the provisions of this Act.

(3) Every appointment or termination of membership of the Council shall be published in the Gazette.

(4) Notwithstanding any vacancy or defect in the appointment of any of its members, the Council shall be considered properly constituted and its powers shall be exercisable.

Meetings of the Council.

10. (1) The Council shall meet at least once every month or more frequently as necessary to carry out its functions, at a time and place to be fixed by the Chairperson.

(2) At any meeting of the Council, a quorum is constituted where at least eight members are present.

(3) The decisions of the Council shall be by a majority of the votes of members present, and whenever there is a tie, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

(4) The Council may invite any person to attend meetings of the Council for the purpose of advising or assisting the Council on any matter engaging its attention, but the person shall not have the right to vote.

Seal.

11.(1) The seal of the Council shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar and shall be authenticated by the Chairperson or one other member authorised by the Council.

(2) All documents, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and under all decisions of the Council may be signified under the hand of the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson.

Remuneration.

12. The Council shall pay its members remuneration in a sum that receives the prior approval of the Minister.

Immunity from suit.

13. A member of the Council shall not be personally liable in any action or proceeding for or in respect of any act or matter done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or discharge or purported discharge of any duty or function under this Act.

PART III

REGISTRATION AND LICENSING

Requirement to be registered and licensed.

14. (1) A person shall not practise nursing or midwifery in Guyana unless that person is registered and holds a valid licence issued under this Act.

(2) A person shall not practise any specialty in the field of nursing unless that person is registered as a specialist nurse under this Act.

(3) Registration under this section may be full or temporary.

Full registration.

15. Full registration under section 14 (3) shall entitle the holder of a valid licence to practise as a nursing professional unless the registration is suspended or revoked.

Temporary registration.

16.(1) Temporary registration under section 14 (3) shall entitle the holder to practise general nursing for a period not exceeding six months, unless the registration is suspended or revoked.

(2) The holder of a temporary registration shall not practise as a nursing personnel unless the holder is fully supervised by a holder of a valid licence, and this information shall be submitted at the time of the application for temporary registration.

(3) Where the Council issues a temporary registration to an applicant, the registration may specify –

- (a) the time during which the temporary registration remains in force;
- (b) the location to which it extends;
- (c) the nature and character of the work which may be performed; and
- (d) any other terms and conditions as the Council considers necessary to impose.

Application for registration.

17. (1) A person, when registering as a nursing personnel, shall apply to the Council in the prescribed form and the application shall be accompanied by the following-

- (a) the required non-refundable application fee;
- (b) proof of identity of the applicant;
- (c) proof of ability to read, write, speak and understand the English language, where the person is not from a country in which English is

- an official language or where for any other reason the Council has cause to question the English language proficiency of the applicant;
- (d) evidence of the qualifications of the person including-
- (i) any certificate, diploma or degree granted by an educational institution that the Council reasonably believes provided satisfactory training in the field; and
  - (ii) where an application is made for full registration, a transcript from any training institution in subparagraph (i);
- (e) where applicable, a certificate of good standing from the person's previous registering body, which shall include the following information-
- (i) professional conduct of the person; and
  - (ii) any complaint made by patients or members of the public against the person and lodged with the registering body;
- (f) where applicable, proof of a valid licence;
- (g) where a person wants temporary registration, the person shall satisfy the Council that the person is legally admitted to practise in Guyana and would otherwise qualify for registration under this section by virtue of the person's existing licence to practise nursing in the person's country of nationality or residence;
- (h) any other information required by the Council or under this Act.

(2) Where a person under this Act is a CARICOM national, the Council shall deal with the person in the same manner as it would to a national of Guyana.

(3) Where a person under this Act is not a CARICOM national, registration to practise granted under this Act shall be subject to any reasonable limitations as the Council may determine.

(4) In order to be re-registered by the Council, any nursing personnel who has been out of practice for at least three years shall complete clinical re-orientation under supervision at a recognised institution for a period stipulated by the Council.

(5) A person who was registered under the Nurses and Midwives Act immediately prior to the commencement of this Act shall be entitled to be registered under this Act without reapplying, and while entry of the person's name on the appropriate register is pending, the person shall be considered to be duly registered.

No. 11 of 2019

Entitlement on registration.

18. A person registered under this Act shall be entitled to –

- (a) have the person's name entered on the Register;
- (b) apply for a licence to practise nursing in Guyana; and
- (c) use the title "nurse", "midwife", "nursing assistant", "specialist nurse" or any other approved abbreviation against the person's name.

Application for a licence.

19. A person whose name is listed on the Register and who wants to be issued with a licence shall –

- (a) apply to the Council in the form and manner determined by the Council;

- (b) complete continuing nursing education sessions as stipulated by the Council;
- (c) pay the required licence fee; and
- (d) meet the licensing requirements under this Act.

Issue of licence.

20. (1) Where the Council is satisfied that an applicant has met the requirements under this Part for the issuance of a licence, the Council may issue a licence to the applicant.

(2) A licence issued under subsection (1) may contain any terms and conditions as the Council may consider necessary.

(3) A licence issued under this section shall remain valid for one year unless suspended or revoked by the Council.

Refusal to issue licence.

21. A licence may be refused where -

- (a) satisfactory evidence of continuing education as required by this Act has not been produced; or
- (b) the applicant has not complied with any of the provisions under this Act with respect to an application for a licence.

Revocation and suspension of licence.

22.(1) The Council may revoke a licence granted under this Act where a licence holder has -

- (a) been convicted for an offence which the Council reasonably believes makes that person unfit to serve as a nursing personnel;
- (b) not complied with the provisions of any regulations made under this Act in respect of the use of the licence holder's licence; or
- (c) engaged in conduct inimical and prejudicial to the nursing profession.

(2) Where the Council determines after an enquiry that any nursing personnel is suffering from a physical or mental condition that makes the nursing personnel unfit to practise, the Council may suspend or revoke the licence of the nursing personnel, as the case may be, until such time as in the opinion of the Council, the nursing personnel is able to resume practice.

Licence suspended or revoked to be surrendered.

23. (1) Where the Council suspends or revokes the licence of a nursing personnel, the revocation shall take effect from the date the Council may direct and the licence shall be surrendered to the Council within twenty- eight days.

(2) A person who refuses or neglects to give up a revoked or suspended licence commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars and to imprisonment for three months.

Re-registration
after removal from register.

24. Where a licence has been revoked, the former holder of the licence may apply for re-registration after a period of two years from the date of removal of the former holder's name from the Register.

Appeal against suspension, revocation or non-renewal of licence.

25. Where a person is aggrieved by the decision of the Council to revoke, suspend or refuse to renew the person's licence, the person may appeal to a Judge in Chambers and the Judge in giving a decision may make any order as to cost as the Judge considers necessary.

Recovery of fees and costs.

26. A person shall not be allowed to recover in any Court any fees or charges for services rendered unless the person is registered and is the holder of a licence under this Act.

A.D. 2022]

THE NURSES AND MIDWIVES ACT 2022

[No. 7

Certificate to be signed by registered nursing personnel.

27. Upon commencement of this Act, no certificate required under any written law to be signed by any nursing personnel shall be valid unless the person signing it is registered and licensed under this Act.

Additional qualifications.

28. The Council may, upon satisfactory evidence of additional qualifications of a holder of a licence registered under this Act, insert in the appropriate register such qualification in substitution for or in addition to the qualifications previously registered.

Appeals.

29. An appeal against any decision made by the Council other than a decision with respect to the entitlement of a person to be registered, shall not lie to a Judge in Chambers.

Registers.

30. (1) The Council shall keep and maintain three registers for nursing personnel as follows -

- (a) Nursing Personnel Full Registration Register which shall include all persons eligible to be registered as a nurse, midwife, nursing assistant or specialist nurse;
- (b) Nursing Personnel Temporary Registration Register which shall include persons who have been granted temporary registration as a nurse, midwife, nursing assistant or specialist nurse; and
- (c) Nursing Personnel with Specialist Registration Register which shall include evidence of specialised training in nursing.

(2) The Council shall cause to be entered on each Register listed in subsection (1), the name of every person entitled to be issued with registration together with the following particulars in respect of each person-

- (a) full name and address;
- (b) the date registered;
- (c) a description and date of the qualification in respect of which the person is being registered and any other certificates, diplomas, or degrees acquired thereafter;
- (d) registration number;
- (e) sex;
- (f) national identification card number or a valid passport number;
- (g) school or institution of training;
- (h) specialty, if any; and
- (i) any additional information deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the Register.

(3) In respect of the Nurses and Midwives Temporary Registration Register, the Council shall, for every person entitled to be issued with temporary registration, include a period of registration.

(4) The Registers under this section shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection at the office of the Council.

(5) The Council may restore to any Register in compliance with this Act, any name removed from the Register.

(6) Where the name of a person is removed from any Register, the Council shall, in writing, request the person to return the person's licence and the person shall comply with that request.

Removal of incorrect or fraudulent entry.

31. The Council shall remove from the Registers any incorrect or fraudulent entry.
